Based on Summit Ridge Energy's solar experience in New Jersey, we expect the cost of substation upgrades to accommodate a solar project of this proposed size to be approx.. $250K - $300K. Summit Ridge and the landlord are prepared to split those costs to pay for the upgrades so that this project can be constructed and ultimately operational.