As part of my overall responsibilities as Senior Vice President, State Government Affairs, I am generally familiar with the draft closing documents submitted to the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities (the “Board”) in response to questions promulgated by Board Staff regarding Charter and SNYM’s filing in the above-captioned matter and also with the terms and conditions of the Order issued by the Board on October 14, 2020 (the “Order”) authorizing Charter and SNYM’s internal reorganization. Additionally, I am generally familiar with the closing documents that were executed to give effect to Charter’s and SNYM’s internal reorganization following the issuance of the Order.

3. In accordance with condition number 9) of the Order, I hereby attest to the lack of material deviation between the terms and conditions of the executed closing documents and the final terms of the internal reorganization from the terms and conditions described in the Order and/or the terms and conditions submitted to the Board in advance of the internal reorganization.

The foregoing statements are true and accurate to the best of my information, knowledge and belief.
